ANOTHER FATAL EARTHQUAKE

THE SHOCK LEVELS STANDING WALLS AND CAUSES ONE DEATH.

YOUNG WOMAN KILLED BY A FALLING CHIMNEY—DISTURBANCE CREATES ALARM.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—At 3:15 o'clock this [illegible] shock of earthquake was felt, lasting nearly a minute and [illegible] considerable alarm, but no serious [illegible] the death of one woman. A [illegible] walls of burned buildings which were still standing in a weak condition were thrown down and brick buildings were considerably shaken up, but the damage done was slight. The shock was also felt in Oakland and Berkeley, but in these places it was [illegible] and of brief duration. The earthquake caused the death of Mrs. A. J. Whitaker, aged 25 years. Mrs. Whitaker was at work in the kitchen of her home on Shotwell street in the Mission district when the shock came. The chimney which had been left in a tottering condition by the quake last Wednesday, crashed through the roof upon the young woman and fractured her skull, killing her instantly. Her body was taken to the morgue at Portsmouth square and buried an hour later at Laurel Hill cemetery.

OGDEN FEEDS THOUSAND SAN FRANCISCO REFUGEES

OGDEN, Utah, April 25.—Over a thousand San Francisco refugees were cared for and sent east from this point today. The refugees states that efforts are now being made by the authorities to keep the people in San Francisco.

TO BE ASSISTANT TO REV. DR. WORK

THE REV. I. J. HEIZER CALLED FROM EMMANUEL CHURCH BY FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CONGREGATION.

The Rev. I. J. Heizer, pastor of the Emmanuel Presbyterian church, of this city, was called to be pastor's assistant at the First Presbyterian church at a meeting of the congregation of the latter church last night. It is probable that he will accept. He will aid the Rev. E. W. Work in all pastoral duties.

THE REV. I. J. HEIZER.

Four years ago the Rev. Mr. Heizer came to Colorado Springs to accept the pastorate of Emmanuel church, on the west side. His success has been marked, and a year ago the Emmanuel church was rebuilt under his direction. If he accepts, the assistant pastorate of the First Presbyterian church, the Emmanuel church will call a new pastor.

LAMAR PREACHER GOES TO PRISON

W. C. CONNELL SENTENCED TO SERVE FROM EIGHTEEN TO TWENTY YEARS AT CANON CITY.

LAMAR, Colo., April 25.—The Rev. W. C. Connell, the Presbyterian minister of this place, plead guilty in the district court today to the charge of having violated the age of consent law. Connell was arrested near Dallas, Tex., some time ago on the charge of having ruined Lizzie G. Ford, the 16-year-old daughter of John C. Ford, a prominent pioneer resident of Prowers county.

Connell was sentenced by Judge Hunter to serve a term in the state penitentiary of not less than eighteen nor more than twenty years. He will begin the serving of his sentence at once.

The minister's wife appeared in court with him and stood by her recreant husband to the last. Public sentiment was very bitter against the minister and much satisfaction is expressed at his conviction.

JUSTICE SHAW LOCATES WIFE SAFE AND WELL

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 25.—Justice Shaw of the state supreme court, has received advices that his wife, who was reported among the missing, had been found at the Presidio safe and well. For two days after the disaster Justice Shaw, going on a special train, searched San Francisco for Mrs. Shaw, returning here, hopeless, on Sunday.

LABOR ELEMENT CRIES FOR WORK

ST. PETERSBURG, April 25.—Thanks to the conciliatory attitude of the city representatives, the threat of a repetition of the great labor demonstration and the bloody events of "Red Sunday," January 22, 1905, on account of the destitution of thousands of idle workmen, has been obviated for the moment. The city council tonight, after listening to heated speeches by orators of the workmen, and to the advice of Professor Paul Milukiff and other Constitutional Democrat leaders, decided to begin public works amounting to $1,500,000, and, pending their initiation, to assign $250,000 among those out of work. The number of those actually destitute at present, according to labor representatives, is not over 20,000. A commission, of which one-half are workmen and one-half are aldermen, was elected to plan the works and supervise the distribution of money.

Danger lurks in the fact that the improvements, which may be begun immediately, will employ less than 3,000 men, and that it will take weeks to complete plans for the work. The situation is especially threatening, as the measures of relief are purely artificial. The army of the unemployed, because the factories are running on half force on account of lack of orders, is constantly increasing.

It was a picturesque sight as the delegation of workmen, clad in their working garb and many showing poverty in their patched clothing and pinched faces, filed into the council chamber and took seats among the aldermen, almost all of whom are representatives of the St. Petersburg plutocracy.

The speeches of the members of the delegation were moderate in tone. They demanded only work and not charity. Some socialist agitators who accompanied the delegation in an advisory capacity, however, were decidedly turbulent.

"We speak in the name of the great Russian proletariat which headed the revolution," said one. "Heed our demands and warning. If you refuse we will rate you with the enemies of the fatherland and we will transmit your refusal to the proletariat, with whom you must reckon. Your blood and theirs be upon your hands."

NO DIVIDEND OWING TO SAN FRANCISCO FIRE

VIENNA, April 25.—The Vienna Insurance company has decided not to declare a dividend owing to its losses in the San Francisco fire.

No North, No South, No East, No West.

—Atlanta Constitution.

A COLD WIND AND STIFLING SMOKE FROM CAMP FIRES ADDS TO MISERY OF HOMELESS; OTHERWISE CONDITIONS ARE IMPROVING

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—About the same number of people were fed in the parks today as the previous three days. Very few were able to leave. They are complaining about the way in which they are sheltered. Everything is being done to relieve them. There is a good-ly quantity of lumber about, but few carpenters to construct the buildings.

In the case of one particular family there are eight people camped under cover of a single sheet. They go forth to eat, but they do not get a chance to sleep.

The wind rose cold at the close of the day, and by night it was a shivering colony of villagers indeed who populated the precincts of Golden Gate park. Camp fires flickered dull and pale; nothing but stifling smoke came from the improvised fire-sides where the clusters gathered in quest of comfort.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—Gradually the national government is taking over the work of succoring the homeless and foodless thousands of San Francisco and tomorrow the representatives of the United States army will have charge of the gigantic work of issuing food to all those who still remain in the city. This development resulted from the meeting of the executive committee today, and the work will be turned over to the quartermaster of this department, who will establish complete systems of issuing rations at the several stations throughout this city.

This was a day of optimistic reports from all sides. "Conditions improving," was the happy expression from those who have had charge of any of the self-imposed duties of caring for their less fortunate fellow townsmen during the last few days. In fact, now that the most important duty will hereafter be performed by the United States army (that of distributing the food and supplies which have been donated most lavishly by the people), the citizens of San Francisco have turned their attention to the details of the reconstruction of their business.

Much Business Resumed.

There was resumption of business to an astonishing extent, considering the conditions, throughout the residence section. Retail stores were instructed to reopen and the municipal government has established a scale of prices for the commodities, food, clothing, etc., which is even below that existing under normal conditions. Warning was given retailers that any effort on their part to charge exorbitant prices would result in summary action by the authorities.

Street cars are promised for tomorrow morning and electric lights will be turned on tomorrow evening. As it is, there is no need of the resumption of cooking in the houses. The work of building and improving the chimneys is growing rapidly, but it will be some time before it is considered safe to allow fires.

The preparation of the morning and evening meal for San Francisco is one of the most picturesque sights resulting from the catastrophe. In front of every house there is a small, improvised furnace, or cook stove, whereon the food is prepared. In some places the Chinese servants still remain faithful to their employers and to them the cooking is intrusted but it is no unusual thing to see the wives of men who, a few days ago, were the possessors of millions, stirring the porridge. The housewives enter into the work with a good spirit.

San Francisco goes to bed at nightfall. While the extremely rigid rule concerning lights in houses has been considerably modified, still, the general situation is considered by the average citizen to be so unsafe at night that he retires without going abroad, and in many cases without showing a light in his house. Many reports have been made during the past few days of shots fired into houses that showed a light and few are disposed to take chances.

Mayor Rights a Wrong.

The mayor today took a firm side against the many self-constituted "citizens protective committees" organized in many sections of the city by bodies of men who undertook to regulate the affairs of their neighborhood. So many complaints have been made against these committees that prompt action was considered necessary because of the wanton waste of water by many people and to conserve the present supply against a possible emergency.

Failing Against Militia

The state militia has not been withdrawn, notwithstanding the requests from the mayor and from the citizens' executive committee of fifty. Governor Pardee has not yet met in conference with the heads of the civil and military authorities at Fort Mason. He has sent word, in explanation of his absence from these meetings, that he has been advised too late to reach the meetings. It is not known what he will do with regard to the state militia, but it may be said that the citizens of San Francisco would experience a feeling of relief if they were removed immediately.

It appears that as a rule the members of the state militia have labored under a misapprehension. They have acted as if martial law were in force and that it was their duty to regulate the affairs of the city according to their individual conception of that law. Since they have been confined to a limited district, however, and the conditions explained to them, there has been less complaint from citizens.

Praise for Army and Navy.

There is nothing but praise for the work of the army, navy and the municipal police. They have acted with reason at all times. Marines are being used in a large section of the city for patrol duty and have maintained the best of order without one instance of conflict with anybody. The direction of the municipal police under Mayor Schmitz and Chief Dinan has been excellent and many are the heroic actions that could be told of the work of these men during the past week. Mayor Schmitz has worked day and night to alleviate the condition of the people and has directed affairs with remarkable success. At no time has he lost control of the situation and he has kept in touch with every department, military and civil, and maintained harmony with all.

The absence of epidemic has been surprising to the medical authorities.

The president's proclamation issued today has had a cheering effect. The local finance committee and the Red Cross are acting together and the work of relief is being conducted in a systematic manner. A force of expert accountants has been engaged, an auditing and supervising committee appointed and every dollar contributed will be accounted for.

The San Francisco labor council on behalf of its 106 affiliated unions has announced that wages will remain the same as before the fire.

OAKLAND BANKS RESUME BUSINESS

OAKLAND, April 25.—After being closed for a week, Oakland's banks resumed business today in accordance with directions from the commissioners. The day's business was decidedly encouraging, more money being deposited than withdrawn. Partial withdrawals of savings accounts were allowed.

"We find that the public feels no uneasiness over the situation," said one banker.

"With public confidence backing us as it has done today, the banks of Oakland are in a more prosperous condition than they have ever been."

MANY CHILDREN LOST IN CONFUSION

SCORES OF THEM, SOME WEEPING BABIES, TRAVELING UNACCOMPANIED AND CARED FOR BY STRANGERS.

SALEM, Ore., April 25.—Governor Chamberlain received the following telegram to Governor Pardee tonight:

"Many children and some babies are coming through here unidentified and unaccompanied by anyone, cared for only by strangers. Can they not be gathered together at Oakland and kept there for subsequent identification? As it is they will forever be lost to their parents."

NO CONFLICT SAYS DR. EDWARD DEVINE

RED CROSS AND GENERAL RELIEF COMMITTE OF SAN FRANCISCO ARE WORKING IN HARMONY.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—Dr. Edward Devine of New York, agent of the Red Cross and the designated representative of the president for the relief of San Francisco, made a statement to the general relief committee this morning at its meeting which made it clear that there will be no conflict in the management and disbursement of the funds in the hands of the Red Cross and those appointed by congress for the relief of San Francisco. He said.

"I have communicated to the authorities at Washington the character of your organization and the splendid work it has done. I have also informed them of the results of my conference yesterday with the heads of your organization and Generals Greely and Funston which was to the effect that there should be a coalition of the Red Cross finance committee with your committee and I have received in reply thereto the following message:

"Washington, April 24, 1906.

"Red Cross No. 12 executive committee gladly recognizes committee of relief and Red Cross. Will forward funds to credit of James D. Phelan. Require Red Cross account to be audited by war department. Please keep accounts so that this may be done.

"R. M. O'Reilly, surgeon general, U. S. A., chairman of Red Cross central committee."

COMMITTEE MAY USE U. S. MINT

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—The following telegram was received today:

"WHITE HOUSE, WASHINGTON.
"April 25.

"Hon. James D. Phelan, Chairman Finance Committee, San Francisco:

"The finance committee can use the United States mint at San Francisco as a depository for relief funds until the subtreasury opens and thereafter can use the subtreasury until the banks open. They should withdraw funds from the depositories in sums not less than one thousand dollars, as the government offices in San Francisco are not equipped to do banking business. Please consult as to details of arrangements the superintendent of the mint of San Francisco. Secretary Shaw will immediately wire suitable instructions to the superintendent of the mint and the assistant treasurer. Authority is especially given to the secretary of war to disburse the congressional appropriations, amounting altogether to $2,500,000.

"THEODORE ROOSSVELT."

TRANSPORTATION MATTER IN HANDS OF COMMITTEE.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—The transportation of persons desiring to leave the city has been placed in the hands of a committee, of which William Sproule is chairman, and it has been arranged that requisition for free transportation or reduced rates shall be issued only in the names of the mayor and General Greeley, and that all such requisitions must be countersigned by O. K. Cushing.

CONFLICTION OF CONTEST FOR SENATE CHANGED.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 25.—The Oregonian will say in the morning that returns received yesterday from remote counties in this state have changed the complexion of the contest for the candidacy for nomination of United States senator on the Republican ticket, and that Jonathan Bourne, Jr., of Portland will be elected over his nearest opponent, Henry M. McKee of this city, by about 400 votes.

CHICAGO GIVES $173,994.

CHICAGO, April 25.—Chicago's California relief fund tonight totals $173,994.

BOAT BRINGS SUGAR SUPPLY

OFFICERS AND CREW HEARD OF DISASTER JUST BEFORE SAILING — EARTHQUAKE RECORDED ON ISLAND.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—The steamer Alameda arrived today from Honolulu having on board a supply of sugar, at present badly needed, which will probably be distributed by the relief committee. The cargo included 10,000 sacks of refined sugar and over [illegible] 000 sacks of the raw material, together with coffee and rice, and 2,000 bunches of bananas. News of the earthquake and the fire was received at Honolulu a few hours before the scheduled departure of the vessel.

First Officer P. Anderson said:

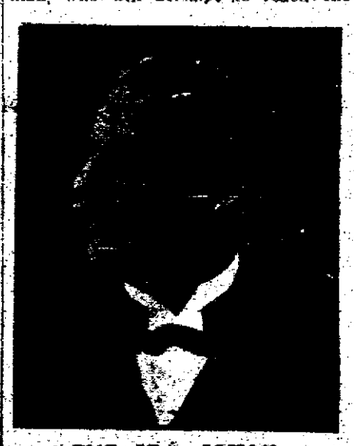
"The Alameda was to have cleared for this port an hour after the earthquake, but the few details of the disaster received before cable operations were suspended induced the agent to hold the steamer until the next day. During all that time we received no further information. Extras issued on Wednesday made known the news of the catastrophe and thousands crowded around the cable office trying in vain to send messages to friends or relatives in San Francisco.

"The voyage was by no means an enjoyable one, as several of the officers and crew had families in this city. For six days we remained in utter ignorance of the fate that had overtaken them. We spoke no outward-bound vessels and knew nothing of the destruction until the Alameda was boarded outside the harbor.

"The earthquake was not felt by any of the inhabitants of the island, but the disturbance was recorded during a period of six minutes at an observatory."

WALTER WELLMAN SAILS FOR EUROPE

NEW YORK, April 25.—Walter Wellman, who will attempt to reach the North pole by airship, sailed for Europe today.



WALTER WELLMAN.

UNFAVORABLE REPLY.

CAIRO, April 25.—The sultan of Turkey has replied unfavorably to the khedive's suggestions regarding the Tabah boundary questions. The matter will now be handed over to the British government.

ANOTHER BOAT FOUND.

BRUSSELS, April 25.—Another boat of the Count de Smet de Naeyer, the Belgian training ship which foundered April 23 in the Bay of Biscay, has been found. She had on board twelve survivors, including Lieutenant Van Zuylen.

EXODUS FROM SAN FRANCISCO IS NOW ESTIMATED AT 350,000

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—Officials of the Southern Pacific stated that their estimate of the number of people who had left the city up to 10 o'clock was 350,000. Of this number, 50,000 or more have returned. Travel outward has been steadily falling off in volume since yesterday, and traffic across San Francisco bay up to noon was but little in excess of normal.

Including the donation of E. H. Harriman, the contribution of the Southern Pacific to the people of San Francisco is figured by some of the prominent officials at nearly $1,500,000. In accounting for the total they state that passenger traffic carried without charge represented $600,000, and that the free hauling of freight will amount to about $850,000.

The military authorities in Washington have been fully informed of conditions prevailing here and the difficulties of repatroning the 200,000 people who remain within the city boundaries, have been fully explained in a telegram to the military secretary at Washington. It is understood that General Greely has telegraphed the military secretary that it is impossible for the military authorities to undertake at this time to inaugurate bureaus for the registration of the homeless or other persons.

Following the example set by nearly all the business interests of the old San Francisco, members of the Jesuit order announced that they intend to remain and that they will at once rebuild both Stignatius college and cathedral.

Several of the foundries and factories located in the district near the water front and south of Market street are today preparing to resume operations at the earliest possible moment. Hundreds of former employes reported this morning and spent the day overhauling tangles of machinery and removing debris.

The surgeon in charge of the general hospital at the Presidio states that his force is perfectly organized and that seventy-five members of the army nurse corps, are due at the Presidio from Chicago tomorrow morning. They will be divided between the Presidio and the emergency hospitals of the city.

Since the beginning of the calamity, twenty deaths have occurred in the general hospital and ten children have been born in the maternity ward.

The kitchen and the bakery of the city and county hospital were badly damaged. Every chimney save one was destroyed. Repairs were completed last Friday and since that time the hospital has been crowded. Five hundred and forty-seven patients are now cared for there and 150 surgical cases are treated daily.

With all these patients, but ten deaths have occurred. During the last three days, forty-four births are reported.

GOVERNOR PARDEE WILL CALL A SPECIAL SESSION

OAKLAND, April 25.—Governor Pardee announced today that he would call a special session of the legislature for the purpose of taking action on the San Francisco disaster. The date will not be set for a few days.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—At a general executive meeting today at Fort Mason the special legislative session and the measures there to be considered were thoroughly discussed. The question of martial law was also considered. The matter of food distribution was finally and completely turned over to the commissary department in charge of Major Dravoe and the various committees reported. At the meeting were Mayor Schmitz, Generals Funston and Greely, Secretary Metcalf and representatives of every committee.

The entire assembly drew up a message to Governor Pardee, in which they stated their request for a special session of the legislature and the reasons of such request and accompanied it with another message asking for a prompt reply.

The feature of passing a general calamity law empowering the city to circulate enough bonds for the reconstruction of San Francisco was legally explained. The opinion of all present was that by all means this session should be called and that the necessary calamity laws should be passed. It was shown that the expense would be less than $50,000 a day.

The food committee reported that all necessary provisions were on hand and obtainable. They said they were even overwhelmed with provisions. Perishable food is causing trouble. Mayor Schmitz drew up a telegram which was to be sent over the entire United States requesting all sources of relief to refrain from sending perishable food. Food supplies should be limited to staples.

General Greely assured Mayor Schmitz he was willing and anxious to do all in his power in the relief measures now being enforced. But as a supplement of this measure, he petitioned the municipal authorities to realize the fact that the army is being overtaxed; that they are being asked to cover too wide a range of work and that they have it not within their power to attend to as much as had been assigned to them.

Chicago has even offered a corps of architects, but the committee was unanimous and emphatic in responding that San Francisco is well able to design the "city beautiful" which it is proposed to build.

Secretary Metcalf is so overwhelmed with relief contributions that he has been unable to compile any authentic total to date. He said on this subject of contributions:

"These contributions are so numerous and come so rapidly that I have simply been unable to more than [illegible] them. Mayor Schmitz [illegible]

HARRIS TO RUN

KANSAS DEMOCRATS WILL NOMINATE FORMER SENATOR FOR GOVERNOR.

TOPEKA, Kas., April 25.—Just before the Democratic state convention took a recess for lunch today, State Chairman Sapp received a message from former United States Senator William A. Harris, dated Chicago, saying that he would accept the nomination for governor if Hugh P. Farrelly, of Chanute, and David Overmyer would agree to take the nominations for lieutenant governor and attorney generally respectively.

Chairman Sapp declared that Farrelly and Overmyer would accept, and that all three would be nominated by acclamation.

TOPEKA, Kas., April 25.—When the Democratic state convention was called to order here today, it was generally believed that ex-United States Senator William A. Harris, would be nominated for governor by acclamation.

The convention is the largest held by the Democrats of Kansas in years. There are practically no contests for any office. Senator Harris, who is in Chicago, had repeatedly wired his friends not to consider his name. Late last night, he wired W. F. Sapp, chairman of the state committee:

"I have made business engagements for two years. It would mean ruin to break them. I am profoundly grateful."

To this Chairman Sapp replied:

"You are the unanimous choice of the convention. If you will accept, we will make the campaign for you and pay all the bills. The people of Kansas call you."

The convention was called to order by State Chairman Sapp. State Senator George H. Hodges, of Johnson county, was made temporary chairman.

State Chairman Sapp said in part:

"Such a system as has been inaugurated by the machine Republicans of this country, ought not to be tolerated longer. Have we arrived at that point in our history when the power delegated by the voter to the congressman is redelegated to the speaker of the house to tell us what shall and what shall not be done—it is not republicanism; it is not democracy. It is the vilest kind of monarchy.

"Our congressmen have represented us long enough. We are in favor of the old-fashioned doctrine as enunciated by Samuel J. Tilden and re-enunciated by Grover Cleveland of a tariff for revenue only. The time is past when we should protect trusts and capitalistic combination. Protection as declared by the Republican party is now used as an aid to the rich to become richer and force the poor to become poorer.

"The people of Kansas sent this slogan across the Mississippi valley and over the Appalachian mountains to New England. We are for free raw material and we are willing to give to the laborer of the east free hides in competition with our hides, because the beef trust robs us even of the hair and then sells the balance to the eastern manufacturer at a higher and fixed price so that the poor are shoeless.

"The aim of the Democracy is to give labor its just reward and it follows when we make this declaration that every industry shall be helped the same as the leather industry. We are willing in the west to do our part to make this nation great and to do it we believe we should help the east and the east should help the west and not help the capitalists by legislating enactments.

"The Democratic party has always demanded the enforcement of all laws. The Republican party does not pretend to enforce our laws. They make a show here and there of enforcing the prohibitory law for the sole purpose of placating the Christian element, but they don't enforce the law hard enough to drive the whisky element out of Kansas and the brewery out. Hence when election day comes you see the churches and the jointists arm in arm lined up against decency, honesty and Democracy, the Republican party advocating free whisky and disobedience to the law, the Democratic party asking for high license, the control of whisky sellers and the absolute enforcement of the law. Hence the issue, high license vs. free whisky."

WOULD HAVE CHILDREN BUILD PUBLIC SCHOOLS

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, April 25.—Eighteen million school children in the United States will be asked to contribute a million dollars to erect fifteen school buildings in San Francisco, if a suggestion made by the Utah board of education is carried out.

The plan was outlined at a meeting of the board on Monday evening. State Superintendent A. C. Nelson presiding. Acting upon the suggestion Mr. Nelson yesterday wired to Nathan C. Schaefer, of Harrisburg, Pa., president of the National Educational association and to National Commissioner Smith, at Washington, asking that a "National School Day" be set aside and that on that day, each school child in the United States be asked to contribute 5 or 10 cents to go to the rebuilding of San Francisco's schools. It is believed that ten million of the 18,000,000 school children in the United States could be induced to contribute.

FIRE BUG IN FLORENCE.

FLORENCE, April 25.—The firebug who recently caused Canon City so much trouble seems to be working here. Last night Neef Bros.' beer depot was burned, but the loss is light. Two tanks of refined oil were standing on the railroad tracks within a few feet of the fire and it was feared that they would explode. They were finally pulled out of danger. Two small vacant houses were burned yesterday.

FOUR DEATHS IN ONE FAMILY

BOULDER, April 25.—Three weeks ago R. C. Batterson, a prominent lodge man of Boulder, died after a short illness and at his funeral were present several friends from Denver and elsewhere. A daughter of Batterson, Mrs. Ed Brown, contracted diphtheria at the funeral by infection from one of the visitors. She died from that disease Sunday. Today Miss Myrtle Batterson, a daughter of Mrs. Batterson, was taken violently with the disease. She may not recover.

TELLS EARTHQUAKE EXPERIENCE

VENTURA, Calif., April 25.—Sheriff McCurdy Martin and his wife returned last night from San Jose where Mr. Martin has been attending the sheriffs' convention. He related the following account of the earthquake disaster at San Jose.

"Most of the sheriffs were stopping at the St. James hotel, and my wife and I occupied an outside room on the second floor. I felt the shock and knew at once what the trouble was and thought the shaking was never going to stop and we had to hold on to the bed to keep from falling out.

"When it was over, the room looked like a cyclone had struck it. Chairs were toppled over, the washbowl was broken and everything was disarranged. We got up and out of there as quickly as possible. The whole back end of the building had collapsed.

"We got into the street and went to the plaza, where a great number of people had gathered. Wreck and ruin were everywhere and with the exception of the jail, not a brick building in the city is standing.

"Eight people are known to have been killed two of whom were firemen. A large business block was destroyed by fire yesterday, but this was the only damage done by fire. I can't tell you the names of the people who were killed or of the demolished buildings, except the new Hall of Justice which was completely destroyed and the St. James hotel, which is damaged beyond repair. The asylum at Agnews is just a big pile of bricks and 100 inmates are reported dead but it is my opinion that the figures are not half high enough. Many of the inmates were injured and many escaped."

JAPAN WILL SEND NURSES.

TOKIO, April 25.—The most genuine sympathy is expressed here for the sufferers by earthquake and fire in San Francisco and the feeling of grief is especially strong that such a calamity should have befallen the best friend of Japan. A subscription list has been opened but there is not much chance for any pecuniary assistance from this quarter, owing to the draft made upon the public purse for the aid of sufferers by famine at home.

A number of wealthy sympathizers with San Francisco held a meeting yesterday to consider the most practicable and acceptable measure of relief. Among those present were Premier Katsura. The Red Cross authorities, after careful deliberation, decided to send a hospital ship to San Francisco with a large number of experienced nurses on board to aid the sick and wounded.

It is expected that this ship will sail for America at the earliest possible date.

KILLING JUSTIFIED.

TRINIDAD, Colo., April 25.—Justifiable killing was the verdict of the coroner's jury which held an inquest over the body of John James, who was shot and killed at Starkville Saturday by Deputy Sheriff Charles Edgar, who was also marshal of that camp. James was drunk and was parading the streets with a six-shooter in each hand. When Edgar approached with a Winchester and ordered James to throw up his hands, instead of complying with the command, James pointed one of the revolvers at the officer, who shot James dead, the bullet entering his brain.

GOLDEN WEDDING.

SILVERTON, Colo., April 25.—The golden wedding of Judge and Mrs. W. B. Watson last night was a notable one in San Juan history, and was the first golden wedding ever held in Silverton. Over 50 friends attended, including most of the leading citizens of the district. The ceremony was impressive and beautiful, and after its completion the couple were showered with congratulations. Music, dancing and an elaborate spread rounded out a most enjoyable occasion.

SALIDA TO HAVE NEW BRIDGE.

SALIDA, Colo., April 25.—The bridge that spans the Arkansas river at Salida will be replaced by a $18,000 structure. The contract was let yesterday to a Pueblo firm, and requires that the work be completed by November 1. The bridge will be 125 feet in length and fifty feet in width. It connects the city with the railroad station and shops.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

BOULDER, Colo., April 25.—At 10:30 o'clock last night a second fire was discovered in the Monroe wall paper and paint store. It had been partially destroyed yesterday morning by fire, but it was supposed the flames had been subdued. All day yesterday men were kept in watch, but last night it was considered beyond danger. The firemen think that the second blaze came from the heated cement lining of the ceiling. The loss will amount to over $7,000.

BANKRUPTCY PROCEEDINGS STARTED AGAINST DOWIE.

CHICAGO, April 25.—Involuntary bankrupt proceedings were started today against John Alexander Dowie individually before Judge Landis. Ransom Walker is one of the petitioning creditors. He is guardian of the estate of Ethel B. Foley. The claims amount to $7,000.

PRICE OF STEEL RAILS FOR 1907 IS FIXED.

NEW YORK, April 25.—E. H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel corporation, announced today that the subsidiary companies of the corporation have fixed the price of steel rails for 1907 at $28 a ton, as now.

"FREE SEED" GRAFT DISCUSSED; PROPOSITION BEFORE HOUSE

(By William Wolff Smith.)

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Within a few days the house will be confronted with the proposition of whether or not it will stand by the recommendations of its committee on agriculture and abolish the "congressional free seed distribution." It is somewhat surprising that there should be any doubt as to the action of the house, and yet the committee fears that its recommendations will be disregarded and that the appropriation will be voted back into the bill. If this is done in the house it will be in direct opposition to overwhelming public sentiment. Secretary of Agriculture Wilson is on record as firm in his opposition to this indiscriminate distribution of common garden seeds, such as onion, turnip, radish and beans. The National Grange, aroused by the insulting charge that the distribution is only continued because "the farmers want the seeds," by resolutions adopted at its convention, through its presiding officer, N. J. Bachelder, of Concord, New Hampshire, through its legislative committee and in the columns of its official organ, the National Grange Bulletin, has unsparingly denounced the practice and has resented the imputation that the farmers want these cheap seeds. Postmaster General Cortelyou would be glad to see the distribution abolished, because the seeds clog the mails and his department is compelled to bear the cost of distributing them as well as the loss of revenue from the postage which would be paid if the seeds were sent out by the seed merchants. The press is a unit against the distribution and thousands of letters against its continuance have been received by members of the house from their constituents.

The common vegetable seeds of the last distribution cost $30,000, so that each of the forty million packets distributed was intrinsically worth less than a quarter of a cent. As these are put up in packages of five packets each, the total value of the seeds to the recipients was slightly less than one and a quarter cents. To distribute these seeds costs the government a comparatively enormous sum. It costs $170,000 in the department of agriculture alone, for the packeting, the clerical force and the selection, examination, testing and purchasing of the seeds. The railroads receive about $36,000 a year for carrying them, while the value of the post of the postoffice clerks, railway mail clerks and carriers, both city and rural, consumed in distributing them, is estimated at certainly not less than $200,000. The loss of revenue to the postoffice department is estimated at from $278,000 to $360,000; so that there is a total loss to the postoffice department of at least half a million dollars.

In order to approximate the amount of mail matter sent out by the various departments under frank, inquiry was recently made of each department in the city. The treasury department reported an average of seventy-five sacks per diem, which, at 300 letters of parcels to the sack, would amount to 22,500 a day. The pension office sent out last year 1,795,000 pieces and the department of justice averages six sacks per diem, or about 1,800 pieces, estimating 300 to the sack. The other departments reported that no figures were available. As the distribution of "free seeds" amounts to 7,500,000 packages, the average is 25,000 packages a day for 300 working days, which is many times that of the department of justice, about three and a half times the entire mail from the pension office with a million pensioners, and greater even than that of the treasury department, which collects the revenues of the government and which is supposed to have the heaviest mail of all the departments.

Should an attempt be made to restore the appropriation in the house, as it is expected there will be, the fight against it will be led by Representative Wadsworth, of New York, chairman of the committee on agriculture, Representative Cocks, of New York, from President Roosevelt's home district, who proposed the matter in the committee; Representative Tawney, chairman of the committee on appropriations; Representatives Grosvenor and Dalzell of the committee on rules; Representative Overstreet, chairman of the committee on postoffices, and others. Representative Cheney, of Indiana, is the only Republican, who, so far as known, has pledged himself to vote for the appropriation, but the Democrats who favor it expect considerable support from the Republican side, notwithstanding the positive opposition of Speaker Cannon and the leaders who are against this picayunish graft.

FIRE DEPARTMENT SUSTAINS COMPARATIVELY LITTLE LOSS

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—The losses of the fire department are inconsiderable, compared with the great damage sustained in other departments of the municipality. As far as known there have been but three deaths and one injured. The apparatus of the department, while damaged, is still intact. Nineteen companies, however, have been put out of commission and many of them will be disabled.

At a meeting of the fire commissioners this morning, it was reported by Chief Dougherty that, including the dead and injured, there are about 100 members of the fire department missing. It is believed, however, that these men have been separated from their companies and will rejoin them as quickly as they can.

Besides Chief Sullivan, the only identified dead fireman is James O'Neil, the hoseman, on duty with engine No. 4, whose body was found beneath the ruins of the engine house at the corner of Howard and Third streets.

The doors of the engine house were jammed by the shock, so that they could not be opened. O'Neil climbed to the transom and was in the act of leaping to the ground, when the cornice struck him on the back of the head and killed him instantly. He leaves a widow, who for a week has been searching for the absent husband. She does not know that he is dead. The fire department is making an effort to find her.

George Wells, on duty at engine house No. 12, was caught between the falling rafters of demolished buildings and his leg badly crushed. At the Alexandra hospital, his leg was amputated today.

At the present time the commissioners are devoting their attention to equipping the department for the protection of the unburned section of the city. The alarm system is wrecked and it will be some time before it can be placed in order. In the meantime men are detailed to patrol near the fire houses and at the first indication of fires, the engines are turned out. The department is still badly handicapped for water and until the mains are reestablished, no effective work can be done.

12,000 PEOPLE FED DAILY AT ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—Twelve thousand people are being fed daily at St. Mary's cathedral on Van Ness avenue, a relief station organized by Rev. Father Hannigan, and headed by him as chairman. This is perhaps the best organized station in the city. The supplies are received at the general depots and are stacked high in the great auditorium of St. Mary's cathedral, where they are given out on orders passed to the line waiting with baskets and sacks. Ten thousand people can be served in three hours. Distribution is made according to the number in each family. The committee has a complete directory of the 50 square blocks in the district, and so perfect is the system that there is no doubting and wrangling. Nine substations give out orders, and it is being arranged for these stations to give out food also. Fourteen clergymen are in charge of the various branches of the station.

ASTOR WIRES FOR ARCHITECT BURNHAM

SAN FRANSICCO, April 25.—James D. Phelan yesterday dispatched telegrams to Architect Burnham and his assistant, Mr. Bennett, who are in Chicago, to come immediately to this city to take up the work planned some two years ago. Burnham and Bennett are the originators of the plans for beautiful San Francisco, and the committee does not want to take any final action until it has had a conference with them.

sum total to be between four and six millions, but I am reasonably positive that the total is above six millions.

"The total amount of the relief fund up to and including Tuesday, April 24, as reported by the committee on finance, was $2,306,436.05. Of this amount the local subscriptions amounted to $190,780."

These figures are considerably lower than those published unofficially on several occasions, but the finance committee takes cognizance only of those subscriptions of which it has been definitely informed.

NEW FRUIT FOR SALE.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—Many tons of fresh fruit were distributed free yesterday. The oranges had been shipped to San Francisco for commission merchants before the earthquake. They had not been unloaded and the cars luckily escaped destruction.

As they had not been accepted by the firms to whom they were shipped, they were largely the property of the growers and packers in the southern part of the state, and word was received by telegraph that the homeless sufferers were only too welcome to take them. The bananas were mainly in the warehouse, where they were being held to ripen. They belonged to San Francisco commission men, but were generously turned over to the naval authorities in command of the water front district for distribution.

EARTHQUAKE REUNITES THIS DIVORCED COUPLE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—The earthquake separated many couples, but it reunited at least one. Mrs. Lelia Frank of this city obtained from Judge Kerrigan, on March 24, an interlocutory decree of divorce from Irving Frank. The terrors of the earthquake brought the pair together, and this morning they sought out Judge Kerrigan and asked him to set aside the decree. A stroke of the pen made the old bonds as good as new, and the couple, after kissing in the presence of the law as an evidence of restored confidence, locked arms and went away smiling.

AGRICULTURAL BILL STILL BEFORE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The house today continued consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill.

The president's message recommending an appropriation of $335,000 for Mare island navy yard was read, referred to the committee on appropriations. Without reaching an agreement as to the limit of general debate on the agricultural bill, it went over until tomorrow, the features of the bill not being touched upon.

WEDDING SATURDAY.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 25.—A lady from New York, who is a friend of the families interested, informs the Sacramento Union that Lucine Spreckels and Spencer Eddy are to be married at 6 p. m. next Saturday.

HURT WHILE ESCAPING

CRIPPLE CREEK, April 25.—John Frame, Sam Haas and Clayte Watt, who were convicted of assault with intent to kill P. L. Dattlebaum and who were sentenced to a term of from five to ten years each in the penitentiary, will be taken to Canon City this afternoon. When sentence was passed a stay of execution for forty days was granted, but as no writ of supersedeas has been issued and the time expires today, the men will have to go to the state prison.

SAN FRANCISCO INSURANCE.

IMMEDIATELY after every great fire the estimate of losses is placed at a figure which is subsequently shown to be exaggerated some one hundred or three hundred per cent. This was the case at Baltimore where according to the estimates made just after the big fire the loss was $100 000 000 But the insurance companies actually paid only about $35 000 000 which represented the insured loss and as very little property especially in large cities is uninsured nowadays this figure is doubtless close to the total loss

But the Baltimore conflagration was a mere bonfire compared with the one that devastated San Francisco last week. The State Insurance Commissioner of California is quoted as saying that "the amounts for which the companies are liable will probably reach $250 000 000 but it is not explained whether this figure includes the loss on buildings destroyed by the earthquake and the ruins of which were afterward burned Present estimates of the damage are largely guesswork, ranging from $125 000 000 to $500 000 000, but most of the experts agree that it will be somewhere between $250,000,000 and $300,000 000. Accepting, for the moment, the latter figures as correctly representing the amount of loss caused by earthquake, fire and dynamite the most interesting question is whether or not all of the losses covered by insurance will be paid

A few days ago it was reported from Oakland that the fire underwriters of San Francisco had held a meeting and decided that the companies "will pay only the claims upon which they are clearly liable." This statement is rather ambiguous Evidently it means that losses will be paid only on property actually burned. The point could be made that the companies are not liable for damages on houses which were first wrecked by the quake and then burned for in such cases the actual destruction was wrought by the force of the shock, and the fire was only an after effect

However, it is hardly likely that the San Francisco underwriters above quoted are in a position to have the final say, except as they may represent the California companies Reports from New York where many of the large American companies and nearly all of the European companies doing business in this country have their main offices, indicate a very liberal disposition on the part of these concerns. Some of the English companies have announced that their San Francisco losses will be paid out of home office funds leaving intact the reserves created by their American receipts All of the companies both American and foreign, declare that they will pay every cent of their losses, though this still leaves a doubt as to exactly what they mean by losses If it were an ordinary fire in which the entire damage is done by burning there would be no uncertainty, but it isn't Clearly the companies can not be held legally responsible for the loss caused by dynamite and other explosives used in efforts to check the spread of the flames and this damage must run well up into the millions. There is more doubt as to their legal liability for the destruction wrought by both earthquake and fire

But it is hardly to be expected that the insurance companies will quibble over any exemption which they might or might not claim under the law Sound business policy makes it advisable for them to pay all losses as promptly and fully as possible asking only for the usual proof of the loss. They will be hard hit of course it is said that at least fourteen companies will be put out of business but they could not do otherwise without sacrificing public confidence In this time of awful calamity a quibbling parsimonious policy would meet with the sternest condemnation from the public and simply as a matter of business the insurance companies can not afford to incur the displeasure of the whole nation.

UNEXAMPLED GENEROSITY.

"HE GIVES twice who gives quickly." The truth of this saying was never better proven than during the past seven days The San Francisco fire broke out on Wednesday morning of last week, and before the next morning the nation realized that the disaster was of such extent as to make immediate aid imperative There was no time to ask questions or to wait for more detailed information. The one vital fact was that almost the entire population of a large city had been made homeless in the twinkling of an eye and that serious suffering must follow The next day it was apparent that starvation might be added to the other horrors of the situation

There probably is not another instance in history where an appeal for aid was so quickly and so generally heeded and certainly there never was another occasion in which contributions were so lavishly made Within two days Congress voted two and a half millions The fund raised in New York state will probably exceed $3 500,000 including $250 000 voted by the legislature Chicago's fund is already nearly $800 000 and one of the papers predicted on Tuesday that it would finally aggregate $2 000 000 There is scarcely a state in the Union however thinly populated in which the relief fund has not reached $100,000, and most of them are raising [illegible]

It is impossible to make definite predictions as to the total sum to be subscribed even now that a week has passed since the movement was launched but it is safe to say that it will aggregate fully $15 000 000

The quickness with which Congress responded is worth more than a passing comment The first resolution prepared in the House provided for an appropriation of $50 000 but before the document left the committee room this sum had been doubled The resolution passed without a dissenting vote in either branch The next day it became apparent that $1 000 000 was only a start President Roosevelt asked for a million and a half more but the House thought a million would do and voted that sum However the Senate restored the amount originally asked and the House concurred The unanimity with which the whole proceeding was carried through is paralleled only by the vote of $50 000 000 for the army and navy on the beginning of the war with Spain In neither case was there debate or opposition Every member seemed of one mind an exigent situation had arisen and there was only one way to meet it only one thing to do and that thing was done without the slightest delay

The sympathy and generosity of the people would assert themselves under any circumstances but one reason why the contributions are so large is the extraordinary prosperity of the country The people are better able to give abundantly now than ever before But this does not explain the lavish generosity of Congress Two and a half millions is a large sum but to Uncle Sam it is not so large that he can not spare it one time about as well as another and Congress is not in the habit of voting away millions without question even for an undeniably worthy purpose The fact that it did it on this occasion shows to what an extraordinary extent the feeling of national unity has developed

Thirty or forty years ago the San Francisco disaster would have been regarded more as a local affair Congress would have voted money and the people would have made contributions but not on so large a scale There would have been some slight feeling that it was California's affair and California should take care of it to the best of her ability and the nation would merely do as much of it as she could not do But now there is no thought of this kind Maine and Florida and other remote states are as quick to respond to the cry of distress as are the towns directly across the bay from the stricken city The feeling of brotherhood that exists between the people in all parts of the country however widely separated has asserted itself almost involuntarily and this is by no means the least of the great lessons to be learned from the disaster

Says the Washington Star "If members of Congress were as sensitive as player folk about appearing before empty benches many a speech would go unspoken But isn't it true that most of the speeches 'delivered' in Congress are unspoken or rather spoken only in the pages of the Congressional Record

Maxim Gorky's real name is Peshkoff If he had been living in this country it would be reasonable to suppose that he changed it to cover up his marital exploits but in Russia it isn't necessary for a man to keep quiet about such things. The lids off in Russia.

Another earthquake in San Francisco yesterday It is impossible not to admire the pluck of the people who are setting about rebuilding the city but it must be admitted that they are doing it on a mighty shaky foundation

Somebody has discovered that there is no such word as boycott in the Chinese language but unfortunately there is evidence that the Celestials know the meaning of the English word

It may at least be said of the muck rake that it is a more respectable implement than the whitewash brush

Maxim Gorky is now writing for the Hearst papers Good combination

Press Opinions

ARKANSAS IS ARKANSAS.

The explanation of why Arkansas retires Senator Berry after twenty years of useful and creditable service and replaces him with Jeff Davis is found in the simple fact that Arkansas is Arkansas.—Kansas City Journal

GORKY.

There is no good reason why this government should not pack Gorky and his mistress off on the first ship as should be done with every foreigner who comes to this country with messages and doctrines to incite discontent and create riot and disorder Gorky is on a begging mission it is true but there is small doubt that a good share of the money he receives for the 'oppressed' will go to support himself and his companion who insultingly flaunt their relationship in the faces of respectable Americans He presents to us a type of Russian revolutionist that is as disgusting as discreditable I take off my hat to America, he said, as he walked down the gangplank upon reaching this country Yes, he takes it off and passes it around for contributions to aid the 'oppressed' of which he and his disreputable companions are specimens Bah! He should be forced to put his hat on again turn his back upon America and return to the social dunghill from which he came.—Kansas City Journal

SOCIALISTIC SETBACKS.

However rapidly Socialistic doctrines may be progressing this growth is not reflected in the vote of the Socialist party The elections which have been held since the great Socialist showing of 1904 have in most cases shown losses or in a few slight gains In Milwaukee, where in 1904 the Socialists rose to the second place among parties casting a considerably larger vote than the Democrats on the national ticket this week a municipal election put the party back in third place Their strength fell from 17 625 in 1904 to 16,435 Of the seven states which elected one or more state officers last fall six showed a smaller Socialistic vote than that cast for Debs in 1904 In Massachusetts the drop was only from 13 604 to 13 195 but in Michigan it was from 8,941 to 6 235 in Nebraska from 7 412 to 2,241 in Ohio from 36 260 to 17 595 in Pennsylvania from 21 863 to 10 590, and in Rhode Island from 956 to 264 Only in Maryland was there a gain from 2 247 to 2 603. In New York city the Socialist mayoralty vote also rose from 11 218 in 1903 to 11,817 in 1905 The normal off-year lessening of the vote will account for these changes only in part Besides, theoretically an organization like that of the Socialists cemented by doctrines applicable to the affairs of the smallest municipalities as well as those of the nation full of militant zeal dependent little on direct self-interest, but uncompromising in its opposition to other parties ought to keep its vote more nearly intact than [illegible] the right parties.—New York Evening [illegible]

SUTRO'S RARE BOOKS BURNED

Treasures Gathered by Mayor Can Never Be Replaced by Frisco In reparable Loss to the World of Lovers of Literature

AN IRREPARABLE loss of the San Francisco earthquake was the destruction of the great Sutro library [illegible] books This was stored in two [illegible] and battlements [illegible] building at Mt Homolovi and Washington streets It is known definitely that [illegible] and the other bonds [illegible] not fire [illegible] at the time [illegible]

Adolph Sutro made his fortune in the Comstock mine [illegible] Nevada silver properties [illegible] early days He built a [illegible] road to the beach [illegible] opposite to the Portsmouth street car companies which [illegible] charging a 10 cent fare built a park [illegible] long the cliff house and [illegible] which he gave to the people of San Francisco and hard by [illegible] over to them the Sutro baths having the largest swimming tank under roof in the world On the strength of these gifts and his genuine personal popularity he was elected mayor of San Francisco

Early Hobby for Books

Early in his career Sutro developed a hobby for old books and conceived the idea of collecting a great library of them For ten years he and his agent bought [illegible] over the world Although he was imposed upon by a great many forgeries and a quite much [illegible] was valueless he made some fortunate purchases and his wholesale method of buying enabled him to get a great deal of good along with the dross

For example in 1888 or thereabouts he aria confiscated the property of the Catholic monasteries in the kingdom Their books were dumped into one great lot and Sutro bought them all including thousands of manuscripts dating back before the age of printing which have never come to light because of scholars In the same way when the Mexican government disposed of its great collection of books memoirs diaries and manuscripts bearing upon the early history of California and Lower California especially the mission period in the boundaries of the present United States he bought them all This collection from which he was prophesied the true history of the old Pacific coast would some day be written was never taken from its boxes He had a standing order with Quaritch for certain lines of books and he was willing to pay anything for what he wanted In this way the collection reached a total of about [illegible] volumes

Sutro Died in 1897

When it had grown to that size Sutro brought a bookmaker named Moss from the British museum and had him assist in organizing classifying and cataloguing it Moss began to straighten it out but he had worked only a year or two when he died In 1897 Sutro died also

It had been his intention to give the collection either to the University of California or to the city But he left no last will The only one in existence was drawn up before the time of his collection and it left all his books and papers to his sister Dr Emma Sutro Merritt There followed a double contest over his property which was found to have depreciated greatly Mrs Kluge appeared who said that she was his wife by a contract marriage and some of his children by his first marriage raised a contest of their own The estate has remained ever since tangled in the courts Dr Merritt who had temporary custodianship of the library closed it absolutely Since that time no one has been able to get through the red tape which surrounded it

Collection Never Classified

Since the collection has never been classified no one living knows absolutely just what was there Here, however are some of the known treasures

He had a complete collection of Shakespeare folios first second, third and fourth Some of the early pages of his first folio were missing and were supplied in fac simile The pages of the second folio were slightly scorched because it had passed through the London fire to perish probably in the San Francisco fire two and a half centuries later There was nearly a full set of folios of Ben Jonson

The collection of Shakespeareana included the real roll of Shotlery Meadow, Stratford which he had some difficulty in getting out of England, the newspapers and the authorities of the British museum declaring that such documents should not go out of the country

An old prayer book and a hymnal, bound literally in boards, were interesting historically for authenticated documents showed that they were the very books placed in the hands of Charles II on his reentry into London after the restoration His collection of the 'Book of Common Prayer' was very strong including most of the famous editions from the time of Edward VI down to the last century

A random summary of the other show books would include some specimens of Guttenberg and Caxton printing a great deal of fine work from Aldine and Elzivir presses, several firsts of Ben Franklin and many rare and valuable incunabula Of the Hebrew collection, said to be very valuable, less is known but some of the scrolls dated back to the tenth century and one most valuable work of the collection according to Sutro was one of these Hebrew manuscripts It was valued at $10 000 and Sutro had some correspondence over it with the Vatican authorities who wanted it but did not pay the price

Very full [illegible] was kept [illegible] the data [illegible] Mount [illegible] there was anything [illegible] a white [illegible] outside of [illegible] this original source [illegible] the books [illegible] Europe [illegible] the [illegible] dissipated

Bavarian Books a Treasury

Bavarian books mentioned before were a great treasury in themselves Whether [illegible] of them were bound [illegible] show by the dimensions of writing [illegible] that they were parchment [illegible] books had [illegible] the eyes of scholars [illegible] of discoveries Yet perhaps the great loss to scholarship if the library is really gone [illegible] the Mount collection which would have furnished the means of rewriting the early and [illegible] history of the Pacific coast

The final disposition of the Sutro library had not been decided when it was destroyed The University of California thought [illegible] by arrangement with the [illegible] asked the funds at the time

It was always understood [illegible] case the original will [illegible] given to a great [illegible] respect the wishes of [illegible] give the books [illegible] to the people of San Francisco [illegible] of any other [illegible] ought [illegible] been taken [illegible] sold by auction

THE FAULTY JURY SYSTEM

Protests against the jury system are being heard from many quarters Recently [illegible] innocent of any crime and especially citizens were take from their business duties and their families and practically imprisoned from [illegible] fourteen weeks in the celebrated Molly Maguire case One of these men was thus served a term of more than three months was not allowed to communicate in any way with his friends or his family—treatment that even the wretched criminal prisoner is not subjected to Another case came up in Philadelphia where a man was summoned to a jury box and kept there for more than a week After the trial had begun his aged mother sickened and died and when the jury task was done he learned for the first time of his bereavement after the funeral

The jury system is open to criticism in various particulars In theory a prisoner is entitled to judgment from a body of his peers and we glory in the beautiful theory that all men are free and equal before the law and that any man who is a citizen and out of jail is qualified to sit in judgment on his accused fellowmen Juries are notoriously incapable of judicial poise and calm consideration of facts The principal qualification of the ordinary juror is that he be sufficiently ignorant never to have heard of the crime or alleged infraction of law in which he is to sit as a judge One of the stock questions asked of veniremen is Have you read about this case in the newspapers? If it is a case of moment he must be wholly illiterate if he hasn't read about it and either desperately stupid or in possession of intelligent reasoning if he has not formed some opinion from such reading If the candidate says he has formed an opinion he is disqualified in the eyes of the law

The main objection to the jury system however is in the bulldog tactics resorted to in the jury room when the ballots are taken for the verdict Should a man hold out to an individual opinion that does not coincide with that of a majority of his fellows it is likely to go hard with him He is often insulted sneered at and sometimes even assaulted and beaten until he consents to the majority opinion And this is the sort of 'deliberate consideration' on which the prisoner's fate hangs

While it is easy to point out the deficiencies of the present system it is difficult to suggest a practical remedy So deeply founded upon precedent and petrified codes are the modes of procedure and channels of the law that it would be a hard matter to make material changes in the jury system as now maintained But some day a man will rise up with the strength and courage to deal with the situation and correct the wrongs of this legal incubus.—Kansas City Journal

SPOKANE'S CIVIC PRIDE

Good citizens of Spokane Wash are very earnestly engaged in a beautiful city campaign A recent evening meeting at the High school building was devoted to exhibiting lantern slides which had been secured from the American Civic association, going to show how other cities have been improved. Much practical work was done on Saturday which was Arbor day throughout the state, and cleaning day as well in Spokane The school children had collected piles of rubbish in many parts of the city and, by warrant of a special permit issued by the mayor all such stuff was burned as far as possible and that which could not be destroyed was hauled away There was also very extensive tree planting 600 trees being set up by the fraternal order of Woodmen while an improvement company planted 1 000 trees on its property around Manitou park As the result of the day's labor in various directions Spokane was so visibly improved as to constitute a valuable object lesson in how to do it.

CARNEGIE TEACHERS FUND.

In the distribution of the Carnegie fund for the advancement of teaching it will be necessary for the board of trustees to prepare a list of educational institutions which are to be regarded as colleges entitled to participate in Mr Carnegie's bounty In the popular acceptation a college is an educational foundation authorized to confer degrees upon graduates The trustees of the Carnegie fund are indisposed to accept this broad definition as falling within the conditions of the gift They have issued a statement in which it is declared that there are about 600 institutions in the United States which call themselves colleges or approximate the more pretentious designation of universities The term college has been adopted in many cases by an ambitious high school or the title university by an ambitious college In some of these institutions a degree is given on completion of a curriculum which would not admit the graduate to a real college or university The trustees observe with great force that the recognition of all schools that call themselves colleges would destroy education standards and yet that it is their duty to administer the fund without injury to the cause of education

The rule adopted is that an institution entitled to become a beneficiary of the foundation must have at least six professors giving their entire time to college work with a four years course in the liberal arts and sciences and must require for admission not less than the usual four years of academic or high school preparation or its equivalent Technical schools must offer courses in pure and applied science and have entrance requirements equivalent to those of a college with respect to preparation The definition of a college as declared by the law of New York was adopted

This definition will exclude a number of institutions from the distribution of the first years income from the fund but the existence of the fund will doubtless encourage the colleges which do not reach the standard adopted to improve their curriculum increase their admission requirements and strengthen their faculties The trustees say that if the foundation does no more than to call attention to the value of doing thoroughly the educational work in which an institution is engaged it will have accomplished much The elimination of sectarian schools of the institutions whose income is chiefly derived from the state and of the colleges below the standard it is believed will bring the number of professors entitled to the pension to such a figure as will enable the trustees to give each beneficiary a substantial sum.—Philadelphia Public Ledger

MIDLAND TRAINS TO CONTINUE RUNNING INTO CRIPPLE CREEK

General Manager G. W. Vallery Authority for Statement That Contract With Midland Terminal Which Expires April 30 Will Be Renewed.

"The traffic agreement between the Colorado Midland and the Midland Terminal railroads expires April 30, but negotiations are now being made to renew this contract for a term of years. I believe the agreement will be renewed—in fact, you can state with certainty that the Divide gateway will be kept open and trains run to Cripple Creek via the Midland as in years past."

This statement, made to The Gazette last night by G. W. Vallery, general manager of the Colorado Midland, sets at rest rumors which have been rife for months that the Short Line people, who control the Midland Terminal, are to freeze out the Colorado Midland from Cripple Creek business, and that the Colorado Midland will build a line of its own into the Cripple Creek district from Divide.

The Midland Terminal-Short Line people gave the Colorado Midland notice six months ago that the contract between the roads, which expires April 30, might not be renewed. Since that time, negotiations for a renewal of the contract have been conducted in New York. Mr. Vallery returned from New York last Saturday, and his statement, given above, is authoritative. Jesse H. Waters, general manager of the Short Line and Midland Terminal roads, is now in New York, and arrangements for a continuance of the traffic agreement will probably be closed before his return.

The Short Line and Colorado Midland are now each running one passenger train a day to Cripple Creek, the former in the morning and the latter in the evening. The number of trains will be increased on both lines about May 1, when the tourist season opens.

TRADES COUNCIL INDORSES CIRCULAR BRANDED "FALSE"

After a thorough investigation by the executive committee of Typographical union No. 82, resulting in the passage of a resolution condemning its statements as falsehood and the filing of charges of conduct unbecoming a union man against one of the instigators, a circular attacking Charles Deacon, superintendent of the Printers home, and the board of trustees, was last night indorsed by the Colorado Springs Federated Trades council, by a vote of 11 to 4. The meeting last night was not largely attended and the decision was made after the representatives of Typographical union No. 82 and the Pressmen's union had withdrawn in sufficient numbers to change the vote. The circular was issued on April 6 and mailed broadcast, but notice of its issuance was kept secret from the local union.

The circular purported to be from a committee of the Women's Label league. It charged that the management of the home did not follow the policy of purchasing supplies from merchants favorable to unionism. The matter was brought before the Typographical union at a special meeting Sunday afternoon. It received a thorough airing, and a resolution denouncing the statements was passed by practically unanimous vote. Charles Payne Smith, a member of the union, is said to have been instrumental in having the circular issued. Charges were preferred against him, and the hearing will be held tonight.

Smith was a candidate for several offices in the local Typographical union at the last election and was defeated in every instance by large majorities. The animus of the instigators of the circular is said to be shown in the last paragraph, which speaks of elections to be held by the international union next month. This is taken to be a distinct thrust at Thomas McCaffery, resident trustee and alderman from the Second ward.

Statements in the circular were refuted by letters from merchants of Colorado Springs, which were read at the meeting last Sunday.

"The printers are up in arms because of this attempt to injure the organization and to vent personal spite upon the persons who have made the Union Printers home a model institution," said a prominent member of the organization last night. "The methods were underhand; they dared not let the local union know, but circulated the attack in secret. It cannot be denied that great damage has been done to our organization, and had the Trades council investigated, we do not believe it would have acted so injudiciously. It does not matter, however, for we feel there will be no difficulty in satisfying the international members that it simply is an attempt to injure Mr. Deacon, Mr. McCaffery and the merchants who have responded so liberally with cash donations to the fund for entertaining the international convention when it comes to Colorado Springs."

COUNCIL HOLDS A LONG CAUCUS

DISCUSSED HYDRO-ELECTRIC SITUATION FOR THREE HOURS—NEW ASSISTANT CITY ENGINEER.

After over three hours spent in caucus considering matters pertaining to the Hydro-Electric controversy, the city council in regular session last night listened to the reading of the bond ordinance, providing for the issue of $170,000 four-per-cent refunding bonds, and on motion of Alderman Tucker the ordinance was ordered published.

On motion of Alderman Albin the request of the property owners on Institute street between High street and Platte avenue, was granted and permission to lay new sidewalk under the supervision of the city engineer in conformity with the walk already existing.

The resignation of Assistant City Engineer W. H. Brenton was presented by City Engineer R. H. Ashworth, and was accepted by the council. By unanimous vote Henry E. King was elected to fill the vacancy upon recommendation of the city engineer.

Council adjourned until 8 o'clock next Monday evening.

Two resolutions, each having for its object the revoking of the Jackson franchise, were the subjects under consideration by the members of the city council during the three hours that the council were in secret caucus.

All of the aldermen, except C. B. Seldomridge, were present, together with Mayor H. C. Hall, City Attorney W. C. Robinson and Attorney W. J. Chinn, of the firm of Gunnell & Chinn. One of the resolutions had been prepared by Gunnell & Chinn, and each lawyer insisted that his resolution was the one that should be passed by the council. The matter was gone into most thoroughly during the three hours the caucus lasted, but no definite action was taken.

A COLORADO SPRINGS CASE

Many Like It in Colorado Springs.

The following case is but one of many similar occurring daily in Colorado Springs. It is an easy matter to verify its correctness. Surely you cannot ask for better proof than such conclusive evidence.

E. E. Grissold, bookkeeper at A. H. Whaite & Co.'s clothing store, 18 and 20 South Tejon street, residing at 216 E. Huerfano street, says: "I just as emphatically endorse Doan's Ointment today as I did in the summer of 1899, when using it according to directions it stopped an aggravated case of hemorrhoids, commonly called piles. Before I went there I had used everything which came to my notice and had been treated by physicians, but the trouble was not even checked, let alone cured. Doan's Ointment is a remedy upon which the public can depend. I have used it on several occasions since and it has never failed to bring immediate relief. I have it constantly on hand and would not take ten times the amount it costs for the box I have on hand if I knew it could not be easily purchased. I have recommended Doan's Ointment to others, who, I know, have received beneficial results."

Plenty more proof like this from Colorado Springs people. Call at D. Y. Butcher Drug Co.'s store and ask what their customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

FAILURE TO RAID A ROOMING HOUSE MAY COST HIM HIS JOB

Police Captain S. S. Stewart Now Under Investigation for Second Time in a Week by Mayor Hall and Police Committee.

For the second time this week Police Captain S. S. Stewart was under investigation yesterday before Police Chief Alex Adams, Mayor H. C. Hall and the members of the police committee of the city council, Aldermen McCaffery, Hoskins and Hill. The charges [illegible] The investigation was adjourned until 3 o'clock this afternoon. Like the investigation last Sunday, the session yesterday was held behind closed doors.

From the information [illegible] the police committee it appears that on Saturday evening April 7 Dr. Paul Lennox, son of John Lennox, was riding home on a northbound Tejon street car when George Justice and two companions entered the car somewhat under the influence of liquor. Justice sat down in a seat by the side of Dr. Lennox and lolled back against him in the manner of a drunken man. Lennox protested and was ordered by Justice [illegible]

The evidence further showed that when Dr. Lennox left the car Justice followed and attacked him upon the street. A block further south the two companions of Justice left the car and ran back to the assistance of Justice, knocking Dr. Lennox to the ground and kicking him several times while prostrate.

Several citizens interfered and held Justice while a call was sent in to police headquarters for the patrol wagon. The first call was received at about 8:20 o'clock, but the wagon with officers did not arrive until nearly 7 [illegible]

[illegible] Captain Stewart [illegible] the police station [illegible] Justice [illegible] $20 [illegible] for the appearance of the [illegible] in the court Monday morning but Justice forfeited the bond and skipped out of the city.

The police records show that Justice at that time was [illegible] suspended sentence of $20 and costs, and the police committee thinks that Captain Stewart was guilty of neglect of duty in failing to send the patrol wagon promptly to the scene of the disturbance when it was first called for. In releasing Justice upon such a small cash bond without first making a thorough investigation of both sides as to the seriousness of the assault, and in refusing to book a charge against [illegible] he has been held for violating [illegible] the suspended sentence.

A number of citizens who were on the car at the time of the trouble between Dr. Lennox and Justice appeared before the committee and sustained the statements made by Dr. Lennox.

It is also charged that for reasons known to himself Stewart failed to raid a rooming house on Nevada avenue four weeks ago when ordered to do so by Chief Adams. The establishment under surveillance, it is alleged, has been conducted in a disorderly manner.

ALLEGES HE WAS ROBBED OF $85

WILLIAM DECOSTA SAYS HE WAS HELD UP BY TWO COLORED MEN NEAR EVERGREEN CEMETERY.

William DeCosta, residing at 1507 Colorado avenue, reported to the police and sheriff yesterday that he was held up by two colored men about noon on the county road south of Evergreen cemetery, and robbed of $85.

The story told by DeCosta to the officers is that he was on his way to the Colburn ranch and had the funds with which to pay painters and other workmen employed in renovating the ranch buildings. A short distance beyond the cemetery, two colored men stopped him, and while one pointed a revolver at him, the other went through his clothing, taking everything he had. When the robbers left him, they went in a southerly direction and DeCosta returned to Evergreen cemetery, where, he says, he borrowed 25 cents from one of the workmen to telephone to the police and sheriff.

DeCosta was unable to give any description of the men who, he says, robbed him. Another peculiar feature of the case, according to the police, is that the city employes at Evergreen cemetery all deny having made a loan of 25 cents to any man at the time mentioned by DeCosta. A thorough investigation is being made by city detectives.

BAD EXAMPLE SET BY THE WEALTHY

[illegible] OF COMPULSORY SIDEWALK ORDINANCE REPLY SUGGESTS MR. H. H. STEVENS.

"While the sidewalk question is being agitated let me ask why sidewalks are not built in Colorado Springs as they are in other cities where an ordinance providing for their construction has been passed? We have the ordinance, but not the walks," says H. H. Stevens of the Alta Vista hotel.

Since announcement was made that members of the Real Estate exchange were taking an active interest in this important feature of civic development, the spirit of boosting for sidewalks is gaining new advocates each day. It is a question that affects all the residents and all the visitors, and the latter are unanimous with the former practically so, in praising the Real Estate exchange for its activity along these lines.

Mr. Stevens is one of the most enthusiastic workers for sidewalks and parking, and characterizes the movement started by the Real Estate exchange as one of the most live issues.

"Other cities enforce compulsory sidewalks ordinances, why should not Colorado Springs? Is there a single excuse? In other places, if the work is not done within a certain time, of which notification is given, a city contractor puts down the walk and the expense is assessed against the property. This would work no hardship here, speaking generally, because the walks are needed mostly in front of the homes of rich people. Take Cascade avenue, for instance. Not one man lives north of the Antlers on this street who could not well afford to build sidewalks. This alone would be a wonderful improvement.

"Visitors constantly condemn the city for its laxity in this regard. After visiting other cities, one feels almost ashamed of this one in some respects, of which the sidewalk situation is one."

Deputy District Clerk W. E. Doyle and mother returned yesterday from Long Beach and Pasadena, Cal., where they have been spending the winter for Mrs. Doyle's health.

WEDDING BELLS AT ST. STEPHEN'S

NUPTIALS OF MISS CAROLYN LUNT AND MR. MEREDITH BAILEY BEAUTIFULLY SOLEMNIZED LAST NIGHT.

The wedding of Miss Carolyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Gray Lunt, and Mr. Meredith Bailey, Jr., at St. Stephen's church at 8:30 o'clock last night was the prettiest church wedding Colorado Springs has had this season. The friends of the bride and groom filled the church to its utmost capacity.

The decorations were simple, carrying out the color scheme of the wedding in green and white. Palms and ferns were used in profusion, with the graceful Easter lily gleaming among them.

During the seating of the guests, Mr. Samuel Jessop played several selections, among them being Mendelssohn's overture from "Midsummer's Night Dream," and excerpts from "Samson and Delilah."

At the appointed hour, the bridesmaids, Miss Lucy Hays, Miss Bessie Curtis, Miss Charlotte Hemenway, Miss Marjorie Palmer, Miss Lydia Eyre and Miss Laura Anderson, preceded by the matron of honor, Mrs. Mark Hopkins, Jr., came from the vestry down the aisle to meet the bride at the church door. A double line was formed at the entrance, through which marched the ushers, Mr. Dunbar Carpenter, Mr. Alfred Carpenter, Mr. Starkweather, Mr. Eric Swanson, Mr. Will Evans and Mr. Lawrence Lunt. The bridesmaids followed in procession, then came the matron of honor, and finally, the bride with her father. The march to the chancel was to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march. The groom, with his brother, Mr. Curtis Bailey, as best man, met the bridal procession at the alter where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Arthur N. Taft.

As a recessional, Mr. Jessop played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

Miss Lunt wore a wedding gown of white satin and lace with silk tulle veil and carried lilies of the valley and orchids. Mrs. Mark Hopkins, Jr., wore white lace over satin, and the bridesmaids were attired in pale green net over green satin with eton jackets of green moire silk and silver lace. Silver wreaths were in their hair. The matron of honor and the bridesmaids carried Easter lilies.

Mrs. Horace Gray Lunt was attired in gray satin and Honiton lace; Mrs. Horace F. Lunt wore her wedding gown of white Chantilly lace; Mrs. C. P. Dodge was robed in pale yellow brocade, and Mrs. Meredith Bailey, Sr., mother of the groom, wore white embroidered batiste.

After the ceremony, a few intimate friends followed the bridal party to the home, 431 North Cascade avenue, where an informal reception was held.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Bailey, Sr., parents of the groom; Miss Brooks, of Philadelphia, an aunt of the groom; Mrs. Mark Hopkins, Jr., of Boston; Mr. Frank Hall of Boston, Mr. Raymond Brooks of Chicago, Mr. Lawrence Lunt, who came from Harvard university, and Mr. Horace F. Lunt and his bride, who were recently married at Dayton, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey, Jr., left at once for their home on Mr. Bailey's ranch near Fort Garland.

In St. George's church, London, Mrs. Julia McMillan will be married to Spencer Penrose this afternoon. Both are residents of this city and Colorado Springs social circles were deeply interested when announcement of the approaching wedding was made a few weeks ago.

DEFRAUD CREDITORS

Charge Brought in Suit Against Woman in Bankrupt Estate.

Charging intent to defraud creditors, Frank Welty, trustee in the bankruptcy proceedings in the estate of James H. Sturman, filed suit in the district court yesterday against Mrs. Hattie L. Sturman to require her to deed to Welty, for the benefit of the creditors of the estate, the property described as lot 6, subdivision of block 218, addition 1, to the city of Colorado Springs, and to have the property declared an asset of the estate. It is alleged in the complaint that, at the time bankruptcy proceedings were instituted, James H. Sturman was the owner of 160 acres of land in Pueblo county, which was later conveyed to Harold S. Ashenhurst for property in Colorado Springs. This latter property was subsequently transferred for the property in block 218 to Mrs. Sturman.

Mrs. Anna Loehr, by her attorneys, McKesson & Little, filed an action for divorce in the county court yesterday against Herman Loehr of Canon City, and as the husband was represented by Attorney James A. Stump of Canon City, the case was set for immediate trial. The testimony of Mrs. Loehr was to the effect that the couple married at Canon City on June 19, 1890, and since that time her husband had caused her great mental and bodily suffering by repeatedly knocking her down, choking her and abusing her. The jury promptly returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff.

Judge Robert Kerr in the county court yesterday denied the motion of the defendant for a new trial in the case of Douglas vs. Fees and entered judgment in favor of Douglas for $125. An appeal to the supreme court was granted upon the filing of a bond in the sum of $300 in 20 days.

W. C. Hart, administrator, has filed suit in the county court against Phoebe D. Rice Curtis for a balance due of $301.85.

LAST CALL FOR 'FRISCO RELIEF

BANKS WILL TAKE SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR DAY OR TWO. CHANCE FOR WORKING-MEN TO GET JOB.

Disappointed in not being able to send a carload of provisions to San Francisco last night, the Colorado Springs relief committee will redouble its efforts and send two cars this evening via the Colorado Midland. With tonight's shipments, six cars will have been sent to 'Frisco.

Although the relief bureau at 16 East Kiowa street was closed last night, the committee has not completed its work. Subscriptions will be received at the city banks for several days yet. The money received will be used to buy clothing, shoes, coffee and sugar, a call for which has been issued by those in charge of the relief work at San Francisco.

To date, more than $22,000 has been contributed in this city and Treasurer E. J. Eaton has $16,253 cash on hand. The committee will begin paying bills today.

D. C. MacWatters, of the purchasing committee, returned from a trip to Denver last night and suggests that a relief bureau be supported in both of the city depots, where San Francisco refugees passing through the city can be fed and directed to free rooms. Such a bureau is being maintained in the Denver Union depot and is doing lots of work. Refugees are passing through this city by the hundreds and Mr. MacWatters thinks they should be cared for and given a box lunch which will suffice until they reach Kansas City, where the next big relief bureau is located.

C. C. Hemming, president of the Colorado branch of the National Red Cross association, telegraphed to San Francisco last night, asking what kind of laborers are wanted there. Local men wanting work can get information today by calling on Mr. Hemming at the El Paso National bank.

The telegram sent by Mr. Hemming to Judge W. W. Morrow, agent of the National Red Cross association at San Francisco, is as follows:

"Wire me what class of mechanics or workmen can get immediate employment by coming. Can transportation be furnished?"

The ladies of the G. A. R. will give a supper in G. A. R. hall tomorrow evening from 4 to 7 o'clock for the benefit of the old soldiers and their families in San Francisco.

AMUSEMENTS

"THE HAND OF MAN."

The Marie Fountain Theater company are proving as popular as ever. They played to two big houses yesterday, matinee and night. This evening they will change the play, presenting the great sensational drama, entitled "The Hand of Man." The story is a very interesting one. The scenes of the play in the third act are located in and around Cripple Creek. Popular George Donohue will appear as "Tommy Teeters," the detective, and works up a number of interesting situations; also creates a good deal of comedy. The play will be presented this evening, also tomorrow matinee and night. This play should prove a popular matinee piece. The Fountains do not play Saturday on account of Lew Dockstader having the house.

THE BEST MINSTREL SHOW IN AMERICA

Lew Dockstader and his great minstrel show will be the attraction at the Opera house on next Saturday, giving two performances, a ladies' matinee in the afternoon at 2:30 and in the evening. Reserved seats are now on sale for both performances.

Lew Dockstader, when asked by one of New York's critics how he accounted for his continual and ever increasing success as a minstrel impresario, replied tersely:

"I give the public everything new each season. If a gag is telling or worth giving at all, it will be remembered the following season, and it loses its strength. Time has been when I thought they were good enough for two or three seasons. They used to be, but they are not so any longer, so I have got to spring new things every season, and I do it. I have even discarded my own airship, which so successfully brought me upon the stage for three seasons. This time I have something entirely different and it goes much better than the airship. I call it the album of minstrelsy, and I finish with a tour in a 'rubber-neck' wagon, taking my audience with me through the streets of New York, and I actually show them the streets of New York. I do this with a panorama of moving pictures, an entirely new effect. It costs a lot of money, but I find it pays."

So when Dockstader appears here everything new may be expected.

CRATER OF SAVAII VOLCANO INSPECTED

HONOLULU, April 25.—The steamer Ventura brings the news from Apia, Samoa, that on April 1st Captain Allen of that place and Dr. F. Linke visited the scene of the recent volcano outbreak on the island of Savaii and inspected the crater. They say that the lava around the crater is cold, but there is a sea of fire inside, and they think that possibly there is a flow of lava seawards under the surface of the ground. There are many smoking vents in the new lava fields. The volcanic activity is much lessened, but in Dr. Linke's opinion, it is likely to increase. Some time ago he warned the people of the damaged localities of their danger.

ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY IS LIABLE FOR $6,750,000

LIVERPOOL, April 25.—The Royal Insurance company learned today by cable from its San Francisco manager that the catastrophe involves the company in a possible liability of $6,750,000. The officials, however, say that in view of the large balance on hand and the profitable business transacted during the year 1905, this will not necessitate a reduction of the reserve or the fire funds.

CRAPSEY TRIAL

FORMER ASSISTANT PASTOR OF ROCHESTER CHURCH TESTIFIES—CROSS-EXAMINATION.

BATAVIA, N. Y., April 25.—The trial of Rev. Algernon S. Crapsey, D. D., the Episcopal minister, accused of heresy and violation of ordination vows, was resumed here today in the court house, the church being too small to admit all the spectators.

Frederick James O'Brien, formerly an assistant under Crapsey in the Rochester church, was the first witness for the prosecution. Mr. O'Brien testified to remarks made in the pulpit of St. Andrew's by Mr. Crapsey, on December 5, 1905, which were in effect that Jesus was born of parents of middle class; that he was born of a simple father and mother; that he was a son of Joseph, the carpenter, and the fact that the early Christians predicted a miraculous birth to Christ was to be regarded as one of the greatest misfortunes that should ever befall mankind.

Dr. O'Brien proved an unwilling witness under cross-examination. The defense brought out that he had aspired to the rectorship of St. Andrew's in succession to Dr. Crapsey; that he had asked for a raise in salary a long time after the publication of "Religion and Politics," and that this increase in emolument was denied shortly before he took the notes on certain portions of Dr. Crapsey's sermon of December 5, which are incorporated in the presentment against Dr. Crapsey.

A WEAK HEART weakens every other organ of the body, for they all depend upon the heart to furnish them with an abundance of the pure life-giving fluid. To give the heart power to do this, Dr. Miles' Heart Cure has no equal. It strengthens and regulates the heart action, and furnishes nerve power, the vital element. Money back if first bottle fails to benefit.

FEARS TROUBLE

FRANCE PREPARES FOR SERIOUS CONFLICT WITH LABOR ELEMENTS ON MAY 1.

PARIS, April 25.—According to a semi-official statement made by a high functionary of the prefecture of police today, the military and police are preparing to meet every eventuality, May 1. He said the police canvass that 80,000 men have stopped work of which number the disorderly element does not exceed 20,000. Against these can be massed 42,000 to 50,000 troops, namely 20,000 infantry, 10,000 cavalry and 10,000 to 15,000 Republican guards and police with large additional reserves. The police will endeavor to localize the manifestation to the Place de La Republique, which is the great labor center and to the vicinity of the labor exchange. This will prevent the manifestants from gaining the center of Paris or getting west of the place de la Concorde into the residential sections of the Champs Elysees or Passy. It is expected that the strength of the military and police will readily enable them to confine the disorderly element within its own eastern sections, thus reducing the demonstration to isolated affrays which should easily be controlled.

The police are convinced that there is no danger of lack of food supplies owing to the strike in the provision trades. They declare that the dealers in provisions are reaping a harvest by spreading alarmist reports. The police are in favor of closing the stores altogether.

In conclusion the officials of the prefecture stated that the situation, while serious, does not warrant it being represented as tragic. The painters have decided to stop work on May 1, and to remain out until they are granted an eight-hour day and a weekly holiday.

CHINESE WORSHIP

KNEELING IN CHINATOWN'S ASHES, THEY OFFER PRAYERS TO GRAVEN IMAGE.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—With unwavering faith in the Image of Heaven, twenty Chinese gathered in one desolate spot of the ruins of Chinatown this morning and worshipped in full compliance with the rites of their religion.

In the ashes of their temple, they knelt and silently offered their prayers.

Prostrate in the smouldering wreckage before them was the charred trunk of the graven image that once held the altar in the temple of Shai Tai. The fumes of fresh incense and sacred punks curled skyward, all the dainties obtainable under the circumstances were spread in propitatory offering to the devil, that no offense to that deity might bring a recurrence of the disaster. No detail was overlooked by the faithful Chinese, who pleaded for mercy in behalf of the 30,000 of their countrymen made homeless by the holocaust.

Skidoo said Howe. It did not suit him. Taking a firm grip on his bat[illegible] he awaited the second [illegible] where between the wrist and the fourth finger he smote the sphere mightily. It went a long ways and was quite awhile coming down. When it did arrive there was no naughty knocker underneath, and Mr. Howe had scampered two sections of the circuit. Morrell had an [illegible] idea that his place was at home with friends. He carried it out effectively and scampered [illegible] the run register amid the gloating of numerous people who if they had [illegible] would have wondered why they were out of the asylum.

It was a great battle. High school [illegible] with a rush. Cutler caught up with another springing spell. High scored [illegible] and Cutler [illegible] coming across the field [illegible] was all over. For 10 long innings the spectators were treated to fielding [illegible] batterywork and hitting on the part of both teams that would have done credit to many organizations of a higher class. It would not be fair to say that either team outplayed the other. Cutler had a nightmare [illegible] the first. Hutchinson made a praiseworthy effort to break up the game in the sixth with two [illegible] bases. It was Hutchinson too who scored the first run for the academy.

After High school had tied the score in their half of the sixth it was a battle. Each team had its chance to win. Cutler did not take advantage of it. High school did. The school men were able to clout the ball when clouts meant runs. Jim Stovell, Sinton, Jack Stovell, Hutchinson, Bentley and in fact the members of both teams played a great game. Jack Stovell who started as dispenser for the High school was wonderfully effective until he met Hutchinson in the sixth. With two of the bags occupied the natty third baseman of the Cutler team caught the ball squarely on the nose. It went on a dead line far over Morrell's head in center and, when High school rested third [illegible]

Nothing more was done until the fourth when the academy scored its first run. Hutchinson [illegible] off with a hot grounder through Jim Stovell for a single. He stole [illegible] took third on Jack Stovell's back. Bentley fanned, but [illegible] Jack Stovell [illegible] was [illegible] Hutchinson [illegible] but was caught trying to [illegible]

Cutler took the lead in the sixth. Hutchinson was again respectable. Lockhart walked. Merrell [illegible] a single [illegible] Hutchinson came to bat and drove the ball [illegible] a line over Morrell's head for four bases, scoring Lockhart, Merrell and Friend. Bentley singled and [illegible] skidded to [illegible] off [illegible] Bentley on third and [illegible] scored on Howe's overthrow to Weller. Weller went out by the Jim Stovell route. Jackson drove a hot one to third but Jim Stovell took it [illegible] hard and threw the academy second baseman out at first. Four runs.

High got [illegible] came right back in their half of the sixth. Sinton singled. Steininger repeated and stole. Friend drove to left for a base, bringing Sinton across. Friend stole. Morrell fanned and was thrown out at first. Howe popped to Coombe. Vanatta's ground hit was eaten up by Jackson, killing the runner at first. One run.

Both teams appeared dangerous at several stages after this but either fast fielding or good pitching slaughtered run getting chances. It was in the tenth that the winning run was scored. Friend dropped a high one into Merrell's mitt. Morrell walked and stole second. Howe drove the ball to right, reaching second before Morrell scored and being credited with a double. The score:

ARMY IS AFTER CLUB MEN AGAIN

SECOND GAME OF FORT ROBINSON POLO SKIFFS WILL BE PLAYED THIS AFTERNOON.

After one day's rest from their labors on the polo field Tuesday afternoon the Fort Robinson and Cheyenne Mountain Country club teams will meet again today at the Country club. Tuesday's game was one of the hardest fought contests ever played in Colorado. The club lost by 3 3-4 points to 4 1-2. It was an exciting contest from start to finish and was not decided until the very end. Encouraged by their showing of Tuesday the local club men expect to make an even better showing today and hope to take the game away from their soldier opponents.

This afternoon it is expected that society will be out in full force. Many persons throughout this section of the state have expressed their intention of coming to the games. Only the bad weather Tuesday prevented a large gathering of the elite of this city and Denver. If the weather man shows just a little kindness this afternoon there will be a great gathering.

Both teams will line up as they did last Tuesday. The game will commence at 3 30.

AMERICANS WIN AND HOIST FLAG

CLOSE RACES IN LOUISIANA ATHLETIC SPORTS AT ATHENS, WITH AMERICANS SHOWING UP WELL.

ATHENS, April 25.—The international sports today were conducted under ideal weather conditions. The final heat of the 100-meter swimming race in the Pharalum developed a brilliant contest. C. M. Daniels, New York A. C., set a furious pace and won slowing down in one minute 13 seconds. Helmay, Hungary, Healy, Austria and Derbyshire, England, who finished in the order named, showed grit, but are not in the same class with Daniels.

The fencing finals at the gymnasium were marked by some bad feeling. The Italian Pezzarino, retired the Frenchman, Dillon. Kavanaught was awarded first place, Casimer German second, and Court Houghes French third.

The greatest excitement attended the running races in which the Americans highly distinguished themselves. The three preliminary events of the 100-meter events were won by Americans, while the semi-finals in all three events were captured by them.

The official time in the semi-finals of the 100 meters race are: First heat, Hahn, 11 2-5 seconds, second heat, Moulton, 11 3-5 seconds, third heat, Eaton, 11 3-5 seconds.

The 110 meter race afforded magnificent sport, Americans winning two heats out of three. D. W. Lightbody who won the first heat, and Charles J. Bacon, Irish-American A. C., who was second in the same heat, ran a well-judged race.

Ray C. Ewry, New York A. C., won the standing long jump, distance three meters 20 centimeters.

The American success was signalized by the hoisting of the American flag, which was greeted with cheers.

Standing jump won by W. C. Fay, New York, distance 3 meters 30 centimeters. M. J. Sherman, Irish-American A. C., second, Robertson, third.

Pole vault won by Gender, French, height 3 meters 30 centimeters, Soderstrom, Swede, second, Clover, Purdue university and Chicago A. A., third.

LOS ANGELES, April 25.—The Nelson-Herrera fight was postponed today until May 25 by consent of all parties concerned. BRITT'S SISTER DIES FROM EXPOSURE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—Word came from San Mateo this morning of the death of Mamie Britt, sister of Jimmie Britt, the pugilist. When the Britt residence caught fire Jimmie Britt and his father carried the girl who was sick of consumption to the St. Francis hospital on a litter and when the fire reached that building they removed her to the Sutter street car barns. The flames pursued them and the unfortunate girl was finally taken to San Mateo where she died.

EDUCATIONAL CONVENTION TO BE HELD IN CALIFORNIA

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—The National Educational association was to have held its annual convention in San Francisco July 4 to 9. Plans are being considered to have the convention held in California in spite of the disaster that has vertaken San Francisco. It has been suggested that a model outdoor camp meeting be established in the Piedmont hills back of Oakland, and within easy distance of the University of California. With some such idea in view a telegram has been sent to Dr. N. C. Shaefer, president of the National Educational association, at Harrisburg, Pa., as follows:

"In consultation with Benjamin Ide Wheeler, president of the University of California, we have decided to request you to kindly postpone any decision regarding the forty-fifth annual convention of the National Educational association for a week or ten days and to communicate here before coming to any final decision.

RUFUS P. JENNINGS,
Chairman general committee."

CITY AT FAULT TO FIX DATE TO VOTE ON RAIL BILL

WASHINGTON, April 25.—An amendment for the cession of the lands of the Blackfoot Indian reservation in Montana was accepted by the senate after being modified so as not to prohibit the bringing of suits regarding water rights in the reservation. The bill was then laid aside and the message of the president regarding the employment of labor on government work in the vicinity of San Francisco [illegible] was ordered printed. Mr. Flint followed the reading of the message by introducing a bill appropriating $300,000 for the employment of extra labor in the navy yard at Mare Island.

Mr. Tillman made an effort to have a day fixed for a vote on the railroad bill but was again unsuccessful. Mr. Spooner gave notice of a speech for tomorrow on that bill and Mr. Clark of Arkansas for a speech on [illegible] on the same question.

The senate adjourned until tomorrow.

WOMAN INSANE AS RESULT OF EARTHQUAKE PANIC

DENVER, April 25.—In the Union depot relief station, Jockey H. L. (Chub) Russell received a telegram from San Francisco informing him that his wife had become insane. Their baby in his arms, was struck on the head by a falling brick and killed while he and his wife were seeking a place of safety during the earthquake last Wednesday morning.

Jockey Russell is traveling to Chicago where he will stop at 4624 Hartwell avenue and on his arrival he will arrange for the removal of his wife to that city also.

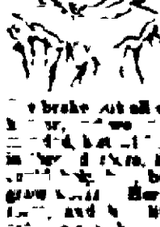
One thousand refugees have been fed in Denver during the past 24 hours and the railroads report that 15,000 will pass through Colorado this week.

BABY'S TORTURING SKIN HUMOR

Face Looked as if They Would Drag Off—Body Entirely Covered—Face Mass of Sores—Three Doctors Could Not Cure—Child Grew Worse—Face and Body Now Clear

CURED BY CUTICURA IN TWO WEEKS FOR 75c.

Mrs. George J. Stone of 701 Coburn St., Akron, O., tells in the following of the use of Cuticura Remedies in her family:



"Our baby started to scratch when about a week old. In a few days his face looked as if they would drag off. The skin was one mass of sores. We had to keep his hands in mittens to prevent him from scratching himself. We had three doctors but they could not cure him. We then began the use of Cuticura Ointment, and in two weeks time the child was cured. We have used Cuticura Ointment for other purposes with good results. I remain, Mrs. George J. Stone, Feb. 15, 1905."

MINING NOTES

COLORADO SPRINGS MEN ARE TO LEASE THE ZOE CALLED IS ALSO— W. P. H. SHOOT.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, April 25.—The Union Mining and Leasing company, operating several properties in the district, expects to begin work on the Mount Anchor on Gold hill the first of the month. The company will start at a depth of 800 feet, in a crosscut which has been extended 500 feet, to cut the Annie Rooney vein. The management figures that it will be able to cut the rich shoot that produced a million dollars or more several years ago.

Davis, Gillespie and associates of Colorado Springs, who are mining successfully on the Old Gold, have taken an option for a lease on the Zoe, to begin the first of the month. The Zoe has a shaft 650 feet deep and a fair-looking vein which will be exploited.

Four sets of lessees are operating on the Coriolanus on Battle mountain. All have some ore, but the streaks are narrow. The first shipment of ore on company account was sent out today and is expected to give values of about two ounces. It is mined at a depth of 600 feet.

Becker, Travell and company, operating on the Dante through the Trail tunnel, 2,000 feet from the portal, have just encountered a six-foot vein that gives indications of values of one ounce.

Lessees operating just below the American Eagles dump on Bull hill, have uncovered a shaft that has been hidden by dump rock. The shaft is 500 feet deep, but work is being done at a depth of sixty-five feet. Twenty tons of ore have been hoisted during the last three days that will give values between three and four ounces.

Frank T. Caley, leasing on the Arapahoe claim on Ironclad hill, has ceased sinking and will now drive for the famous W. P. H. shoot at a depth of 625 feet.

DREADFUL ATTACK OF WHOOPING COUGH.

Mrs. Ellen Harlison, of 309 Park ave., Kansas City, Mo., writes as follows: "Our two children had a severe attack of whooping cough, one of them in the paroxysm of coughing would often faint and bleed at the nose. We tried everything we heard of without getting relief. We then called in our family doctor, who prescribed Foley's Honey and Tar. With the very first dose they began to improve, and we feel that it has saved their lives." Refuse substitutes. For sale by Hefley-Arcularius Drug Co.

CONCERNING FOOLISH TITLES.

Some of the best known and most popular duchesses have not themselves sprung from titled families. The Duchess of Bedford is an instance of this, and her Grace of Sutherland is another. The latter lady is a daughter of Major Robert Poore, and sister of the famous cricketer of the same name. The latter married Lady Flora Hamilton, the duke's sister, and in 1901 the duke fell in love with and married Miss Nina Poore. The duchess is a beauty—very fair, tall, with blue eyes and golden hair. She is much more fond of country than of town life, and especially of her husband's place in Scotland—Hamilton palace.

DIGNIFIED PRACTICAL JOKER.

One can hardly imagine that dignified and zealous temperance advocate, Lady Henry Somerset, as a practical joker, and yet it is a fact that she, together with her cousin, Lady Dudley, once dressed up as a pair of French tourists and in this guise and heavily veiled visited her place at Eastnor castle and went all over it. But apparently she was not sufficiently impressed by the beauties of her own residence, for afterward her housekeeper confided to her that "Duchess de Montmorenci"—that name which Lady Henry had given herself—"was a disagreeable creature."

RESTLESS NIGHTS

are due to an exhausted, turbulent condition of the nervous system. Your sleep will be sound and refreshing if you will take one of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills on going to bed or when you awaken in the night. They soothe the nerves and sleep quickly follows. They are perfectly harmless if taken as directed. Sold by druggists. 25 doses, 25c. Never sold in bulk.

CHRONIC BRONCHITIS CURED.

"For ten years I had chronic bronchitis so bad that at times I could not speak above a whisper," writes Mr. Joseph Coffman, of Montmorenci, Ind. "I tried all remedies available, but with no success. Fortunately my employer suggested that I try Foley's Honey and Tar. Its effect was almost miraculous, and I am now cured of the disease. On my recommendation many people have used Foley's Honey and Tar, and always with satisfaction." For sale by Hefley-Arcularius Drug Co.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET IS WEAK

A NOTABLE SHRINKAGE IN VOLUME OF BUSINESS. UNION PACIFIC WAS WELL SUPPORTED.

NEW YORK, April 25.—Today's stock market was a repetition in most respects of that of yesterday, but with a notable shrinkage in the volume of activity. There was a buying movement, attributed largely to the account of professional operators, who failed to discover any important pressure to sell and turned to the long side accordingly. The free offering of liquidation and even of the money market were accepted as an indication that the most urgent and immediate necessities on account of the San Francisco loss has mostly been provided for. Opinion is not so clear of the ultimate needs, especially provision for paying insurance losses. There was a further movement of currency towards San Francisco, but not as large as on previous days. This caused a feeling that the cash requisition thought to be necessary by the San Francisco banks to meet the first calls upon them when opening for business was approaching. Union Pacific was well supported and Amalgamated Copper was helped by the strong advance in the foreign price for the metal. The United States Steel stocks got little advantage from the very favorable showing of net earnings in the quarterly report, selling to take profits more than over-balancing the new demand. The six-point break in Consolidated Gas was instrumental in the renewed decline, which set in late in the day and swept prices comparatively to below last night's level. The selling was actively in force at the weak closing.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $2,155,000.

United States bonds were all unchanged on call.

CHICAGO GRAIN STOCK STEADY

WHEAT IS IRREGULAR, BUT GAINS AT THE CLOSE—CORN SELLS OFF—OATS IS FIRM.

CHICAGO, April 25.—July wheat opened a shade to ⅛@¼c lower at 79⅞c, to 79½c, advanced to 79⅞c and then declined to 79¼c. The close was at 79⅝@79½c. May sold between 79¾@79⅜c to 80⅝c and closed at 80⅛@81⅛c, a net gain of ⅛@⅜c.

The corn market was quite firm early but later weakened on selling credited to a leading long. Small local receipts and firm cables contributed to the early firmness. May ranged between 46⅞c and 46⅝c and closed at 46⅞@48c, a net loss of ⅛@⅜c.

Oats were firm on covering by shorts and on buying by cash interests. July opened unchanged at 30⅝c, sold up to 31⅛c and closed at 31c. May ranged between 32¼c and 32⅜c and closed at 32½c.

Despite a decline in the price of live hogs, the provisions market was firm. At the close July pork was up 10@12½c at $15.95. Lard was 10@12½c higher at $8.72½, and ribs were up 12½c at $8.82½.

WANTS MODEL OF FLYING MACHINE

PETER REMSBECKER GETS OFFER FROM BRITISH SECRET SERVICE OFFICER IN MANILA, P. I.

Peter Remsbecker received a letter yesterday from T. S. Stephens, an officer of the British secret service stationed at Manila, P. I., asking him to name his price for a working model of his flying machine.

The first account of Mr. Remsbecker's invention was given in The Gazette some months ago. The invention utilizes a gasoline cycle motor strapped to a man's back and attached to a single mechanism which works a pair of wings like those of a hawk.

Mr. Remsbecker has almost completed his working model and hopes to be able to give a public trial of it on May 13 from the bluffs back of the Standard mills. Erwin Boyle has become interested in the invention and will assist Mr. Remsbecker in his public demonstration.

Consumption is a Germ Disease. How Can It Start With a Cold?

This is a reasonable question, and one that must arise to the mind of almost everyone when the claim is made that consumption starts with a cold. The cold simply prepares the system for the reception and development of germs of that disease, that would not otherwise have found lodgment. It is the same with diphtheria, scarlet fever and measles. They are most likely to be contracted when the child has a cold. That is why a cold should never be neglected. The longer it hangs on the greater the danger. As a quick cure for colds Chamberlain's Cough Remedy can always be relied upon. Its remarkable cures have won for it a world wide reputation and an immense sale. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.
